

IMPROVE ACCESS TO CLINICAL TRIALS IN ILLINOIS MEDICAID

Clinical trials are critical to advancing life saving cancer treatments. Patient participation in trials is crucial to this success. Currently Illinois' Medicaid program is one of the few remaining insurance programs in the U.S. that is not required to cover routine care for patients in cancer clinical trials. Over 20% of Illinoisans currently rely on Medicaid for access to healthcare, including children and individuals with disabilities. Improve access to clinical trials for Medicaid enrollees!
